

Seagate® GoFlex® Slim for Mac

Performance Drive

The GoFlex® Slim for Mac® performance drive is perfect for the Mac® user looking for a Time Machine® ready external drive in a sleek, ultra-thin enclosure.

Perfect for when you need to:

- Increase storage capacity for mobile devices
- Carry files with you anywhere and everywhere
- Read, write and share files between Mac and PC

The GoFlex® Slim for Mac® performance drive is the optimal capacity addition for portable devices with limited storage. It is formatted for Mac® computers out of the box, making it fully compatible Time Machine® software. The ultra-thin anodized case not only helps resist against damage while transport, it also adds a unique and premium finish to the drive. It is about as thick as a pencil, allowing you to slide it in a computer case, backpack or pocket so you can take your content anywhere and everywhere. The GoFlex® Slim for Mac® is not only thinnest external hard drive available, it also offers 7200RPM performance and USB 2.0 connectivity. As part of the GoFlex family, the GoFlex® Slim for Mac® is compatible with GoFlex™ ecosystem accessories giving you the option to upgrade to faster interfaces. Install the downloadable HFS+ driver on a PC and use the drive interchangeably between PC and Mac® computers without formatting and performance loss. This is the perfect solution for Mac® computer users who want the flexibility to use a PC without any program limitation or file size restrictions.

Highlights

- Sleek, ultra-thin anodized design
- Compatible with Time Machine® software
- High performance 7200RPM drive
- USB 2.0 plug-and-play
- Use the same drive interchangeably on both Mac® and PC computers
- 3-Year Limited Warranty
